Your ceremony is special to you and important to us . . .

Personal Ceremony:

A Civil Ceremony, conducted by a Registrar from Fermanagh and Omagh District Council, provides you with the opportunity to tailor the Ceremony and make it personal to you, ensuring it's a day to remember.

Family members and/or friends are encouraged to take an active part in your Ceremony which helps create a personal touch.

You may include live music, poems, readings, additional personal vows, remembrance candles and details which will make the Ceremony unique to you both.

Where Civil Ceremonies Take Place:

Registrars Office: Civic Suites, The Townhall, Enniskillen, County Fermanagh and The Grange, Omagh, County Tyrone.

Fee: from £163 (inclusive)

Approved Venues:

There are a number of approved venues throughout the District including hotels, castles, National Trust properties and an island to name a few. Please contact the Registrar for a full list of Approved Venues.

Fee: from £250 (inclusive)

Days & Times:

Monday – Saturday, including bank holidays. Contact the Registration Office for information on ceremony times.

Make a Booking:

It is essential that the Registrar is booked to officiate at your Ceremony prior to confirming any other bookings. Registration staff will guide you in relation to the submission of marriage/civil partnership paperwork and the legal documents required.

Religious and Belief Marriages:

For your religious or belief marriage, you must submit marriage notice forms, all documents and payment within the permitted time frame. Marriage notice can be accepted one year beforehand and it is recommended no later than 8 weeks in advance of your ceremony. Notice forms must be signed by both parties and the officiant.

Please contact the registration office to obtain an information pack.
